

Dear Delegate,

Thank you for participating in the Tenth International Conference on e-Learning & Innovative Pedagogies. We are pleased you will be joining us in Toronto, Canada at the University of Toronto's Chestnut Conference Centre and hope you are looking forward to coming together with colleagues and members of the e-Learning & Innovative Pedagogies Research Network this May.

In preparation for the conference, we have put together some information that we hope will prove useful to you as you begin to prepare for the conference and your arrival in Toronto. In this document, you will find a variety of information, such as; transportation, accommodations, activities and extras, conference registration, and conference presentations. Please note that all delegates will need to bring their own laptop computers for presentation. Equipment is detailed further on page two of this packet.

This packet is a starting point for your preparations, and we realize you may have some additional questions after reviewing the material here. For any questions that remain please contact the conference secretariat at support@ubi-learn.com.

We hope your planning goes well, and we look forward to seeing you in Toronto!

Best wishes,

Rachael Arcario
e-Learning & Innovative Pedagogies Conference Producer

Registration Desk Hours and Location

The conference will take place on 27 May. The conference registration desk will be located on the second floor in the lobby, or main hall, of the Chestnut Conference Center right outside of the Colony Ballroom West, where the conference opening and plenary session will take place. Registration will begin at 8:00 am but delegates are welcome to pre-register the day before at the pre-conference Welcome Reception.

Any questions that arise at the conference should be directed to the staff at the conference registration desk. This includes questions regarding presentation equipment, your particular presentation, and questions about submitting your article to the journal.

Session Types

For a complete description of session types please visit our website

- Themed Paper Presentation: If you have a Paper Presentation in a Themed Session (formally referred to as a 30-minute session), you have been scheduled into a 75 or 100-minute session with three or four other presenters. In these themed sessions, papers are grouped by similar topics or by different perspectives on a particular issue. This format allows for greater participation and enhanced discussion. In themed sessions, each presenter speaks for twenty minutes. A group discussion of all presented papers follows in the time remaining. To allow adequate time for group discussion prepared remarks are limited to twenty minutes.
- Workshop Presentation: If you are scheduled to present a Workshop, you have been slated in a 45-minute session in which skills or concepts are taught, demonstrated, or explored within an interactive platform. These presentations often include worksheets, props, or activities to further articulate the presented research and add an element of active involvement for the session attendees. This less-structured format is led by the researching author(s) and allows for questions and discussions to take place throughout the duration of the session.
- Colloquia: This presentation type involves a group of 5 colleagues that present separate papers on a common topic or theme. Ninety minutes are allotted for this session type and the researching authors divide the presentation up as appropriate to their chosen format. Time for questions and discussions can take place throughout the duration of the session.
- Poster Session: Individual scholars present visual displays (posters) of the status of their work, or exhibits of artwork, models, or other products. Authors will have the opportunity to hold discussions with the delegates who are circulating amongst the poster boards in this 45-minute session. (Projectors and computers are not provided by the conference for this session type.)
- Focused Discussion Session: Authors are each assigned a numbered table in a large meeting room for the full 45-minute session, during which time they converse and interact with interested delegates who join them at their table. The discussion may begin with the author presenting a synopsis of their work, to generate discussion on the topic. Authors are encouraged to bring copies of their papers and/or a short handout summarizing their work for distribution at their tables. Multiple authors of a single paper may participate, and one article per roundtable may be submitted for publication. (Projectors and computers are not provided by the conference for this session type.)

Presentation Equipment

All session rooms in the Chestnut Conference Center will be fully equipped with screens and data projectors. Delegates will need to bring their own laptop computers. If you are a Mac user, please be sure to bring the correct Mac VGA adaptor. Please note that the University does not provide overhead projectors for transparencies in their classrooms.
